SICILY ITALY

I am in love!
To be honest I like a lot of vintage stuff : the ultimate little black jacket from Chanel, that lovely leather bag, my watch from my year of birth and above all my vintage mother in law!

But oweee how I liked this vintage tour in a Fiat 500 in and around Taormina, Sicily. Little streets full of busy local life and remote roads on the rural country side. Our ultimate stop was at the wine cellars of Gambino. Tasting? Sure we did.

Our tour was one of the several wonderful routes these guys of 500 Vintage Tours can offer. Next time I surely will go for the Godfather theme (and be sure I wear my vintage Rayban ;-)
